Confidentiality Agreement

(Version 3. April 19th, 2012)

I understand that all personally identifiable information to which I have access, or learn of through my association with the James Hogg Research Centre (JHRC) , is confidential and is only to be used and/or disclosed for those purposes, and in such manner as defined by the JHRC policy. I understand that this agreement is lasting even though my employment or association with the JHRC may have ended. I understand that breach of this agreement may result in severe consequences.
